

Citizens' understanding of society is a vital factor in keeping a democracy strong. Therefore, a variety of media sources with a differing points of view is essential to this country. Please, do not permit a few corporations to control what news Americans hear on radio, see on TV, and read in the newspapers. Public hearings are necessary before any changes are made in FCC regulations regarding media ownership.